Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, September 23, 1762.

PARIS, June 18.

THE Toulon Squadron, conſiſting of 10 Ships of the Line, 2 Frigates, and 3 Xebeques, put to Sea the 7th of this Month, at Two in the Afternoon, with ſeveral Tranſports under their Convoy. It is ſuppoſed they are to be joined by the Spaniſh Squadron from Carthagena.

Brittany, June 12. Troops are continually embarking on board the Squadron which is fitting out at Breſt. As ſoon as it is joined by the Spaniſh Fleet, it will go out to ſeek the Engliſh in the open Seas.

Hamburgh, June 22. The Apprehenſions we have been under for ſome Days paſt begin to diſſipate. Yeſterday Morning met the Aſſembly Extraordinary of the Burghers, in order to qualify the Nobles of 60 to treat with the Daniſh Miniſter about the Million of Rix-Dollars demanded by that Court, and to ſignify to him that the ſame is agreed to, but as the ſaid Sum cannot be paid all at once, it is agreed that one Half ſhall be advanced by way of Loan, at the Rate of 4 per Cent. and that in Conſequence thereof the Daniſh Troops ſhall depart from this Neighbourhood, at leaſt quit the Seats and Gardens of the Magiſtracy, in ſome of which 20, 30, or 40 Men, are quartered. This Departure commenced this Morning early, and finiſhed this Evening. A ſtrong Body of about 7 or 8000 Men, which lay in our Neighbourhood, have alſo broke up, and joined the other Troops, ſo that together they amount to 15000 Men. Whilſt they continued in our Territories, they obſerved a ſtrict Diſcipline; they meddled with no Plate, nor any Part of the rich Furniture, where they lay. On the other Hand, the Proprietors of the Territories where they were quartered, treated them in the moſt friendly Manner, not only refreſhing them with the Products of their own Gardens, but ſupplying them with Fiſh, Fleſh, Wine, Beer, &c. Not being ſatisfied with the French Wine they met with, and wanting Old Hock and Moſel Wine, the General who commanded them, ordered they ſhould have nothing but Bread and Small Beer. It is ſaid that the City of Lubeck has, like us, in a private Manner furniſhed a Loan.

Thus is the whole Territory of Hamburgh happily evacuated by the Danes.

LONDON, June 26.

Yeſterday the Right Honourable William Pitt came to Town from Hayes, and afterwards waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, with whom he had a long Conference.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hague, June 22.

" We no longer doubt of an open Rupture between the Courts of Copenhagen and Peterſburgh. It is ſaid that the Danes have ſeized two Villages belonging to the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, which were pledged to the Hamburghers for Money lent by them to the Duke of that Name. We have Advice from Peterſburgh, that the Emperor hath ſent Orders to the Magiſtrates of Kiel, and other Places belonging to him in the Dutchy of Holſtein, to ſuffer no Subſiſtence, or any of the Neceſſaries of Life, to be exported; but, on the contrary, to raiſe all the Money they can to eſtabliſh Magazines of Corn and Meal ſufficient for a Year. Theſe Letters add, that General Tottleben would command a Body of Light Troops; but that an Officer of Truſt would be joined with him, to prevent illegal Exactions.

" P. S. Letters from Hamburgh, of the 18th, adviſe, that War is declared between the Courts of Copenhagen and Peterſburgh. Theſe Letters add, that all were in the greateſt Conſternation at Hamburgh, which had been in a Manner blocked up that Day by a Body of 4000 Danes, who demanded to be put in Poſſeſſion of the Town, and to be paid 1,500,000 Crowns [4s. 6d.] in twice 24 Hours. It is ſaid that the Hamburghers are preparing for a vigorous Reſiſtance, depending on Succours from the Ruſſians."

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, June 18.

" Yeſterday, at Eleven in the Forenoon, the Senate met; and in the Afternoon the 52 Captains of the Burghers met likewiſe. In the Evening eight Companies went to take Poſſeſſion of divers Poſts, and the Guards of the Garriſon were doubled.

" This Day the Burghers met at Nine in the Morning, and ſat till Four in the Afternoon, to deliberate on a Meſſage from the King of Denmark, demanding from this City a Million of Crowns, and allowing the Senate only twice 24 Hours to deliver their Anſwer. A Reſolution was taken to give a flat Refuſal. Almoſt at the ſame Time, ſeveral Bodies of Daniſh Troops approached this City, and diſlodging our Guards, took Poſſeſſion of the Suburbs and Country Seats; the Pruſſian Miniſter's Country Houſe alone was ſpared.

" In this diſtreſsful Situation, we are putting ourſelves in the beſt State of Defence that is poſſible, fully determined to repel Force by Force. Mean while, till the Iſſue of this violent Criſis can be known, we flatter ourſelves that the foreign Miniſters reſiding here will employ their good Offices to lay the Storm. We depend moſt on thoſe of the Emperor, Great-Britain, Holland, and Pruſſia. The great Importance to Trade of preſerving the Liberties of this free Imperial City, will be a powerful Motive to engage them in our Favour.

" What adds to our Perplexity is, that there is Room to apprehend that the Ruſſian Troops will advance from Pomerania into Holſtein. It is ſaid that the Senate are going to ſend two of their Body, one to Vienna, and the other to Ratiſbon. It would be a terrible Blow both to this City, and to Lubeck, if our Neighbourhood ſhould be made the Theatre of War: Our Liberties would be at an End."

June 29. Sunday Notice was ſent from the Lords of the Admiralty to the Merchants trading to Portugal, to wait upon their Lordſhips Yeſterday at 12 o'Clock. A Committee of thoſe Gentlemen having attended accordingly, Lord Halifax was pleaſed to acquaint them, that there were now ready at their Service Eight Tranſport Ships, amounting to Eight Thouſand Five Hundred Tons Burden, and Two Men of War, and a Frigate, to remove their Effects from Oporto to any Place they pleaſed, or to bring them Home. Which agreeable Offer was readily accepted.

Hamburgh, now inveſted by the Danes, is able to arm 12,000 Men. The Government is in it's own Magiſtrates, who are four Burgomaſters, 20 Aldermen, and 12 Common-council; but on any Emergency the Body of Freemen are aſſembled. It was declared a free Imperial City in 1510, independent of any Power except the Emperor, to whom they pay a ſmall Homage. Yet the King of Denmark having a Caſtle on the Banks of the Elbe, obliged their Ships to pay a Toll, which they bought off in 1645 for 120,000 Rix Dollars. Notwithſtanding which, in 1679 the Danes got 220,000 more Rix Dollars, to take them into their Favour; and in 1686 they again beſieged that City, and were bought off, and other great Sums have been extorted from them ſince.

We hear from Waterford in Ireland, that five of the Levellers were capitally convicted there, and there were a Hundred more to try when the Letters came away.

The principal Proteſtant Inhabitants of the Country of Tipperary in Ireland, have entered into an Aſſociation to put the Laws in Force againſt the Papiſts in that Country bearing Arms, or having any in their Poſſeſſion, and have agreed to give Twenty Pounds more than the common Reward for any three of them who ſhall be convicted of having Arms in their Poſſeſſion. This is thought neceſſary in the preſent Conjuncture; and no Doubt will be followed by ſeveral other Counties.

When the Poſt was leaving Holland, Letters were received from Hamburgh, with Advice that the Danes had raiſed the Blockade of that Place, the Magiſtrates having found Means to ſatisfy the King of Denmark. They lend the King a Million of Rix Dollars, Half in Money, and Half in Bills, for which he pays them Four per Cent.

We hear from Madrid, that by Advices from the Army of the 5th Inſtant, they learnt that Brigadier O Reily's Light Troops had advanced to Villa-Real, a Town ſituated at the Confluence of the Corgo and Ribera.

They write from Paris, that the Toulon Squadron, which ſailed on the 7th of June, will firſt go to Minorca, and bring back the Garriſon of that Place to France; others pretend that it was to ſteer directly for Cadiz. Another Armament is preparing at Toulon, which is to conſiſt of three Ships of the Line, four Frigates, and ſome Chebecs.

July 1. There are Letters by the Brilliant Man of War, arrived at Plymouth from Oporto, dated the 11th of June, which ſay, that 4000 Regulars, and 6000 of the Militia, were arrived at that Place, and were ready to receive the Spaniards, if they thought proper to attack them; but that the Spaniards hearing of their Arrival at Oporto, and that the Portugueſe expected every Hour to receive a Reinforcement of Horſe and Foot, have declined penetrating any further into that Part of the Country; by which the Inhabitants are at preſent freed from their Fears of being viſited by the Spaniards.

Other Letters ſay, that 14,000 Portugueſe, 7000 of them Regulars, in which Number Lord Crawford's Regiment is included, were marched beyond Oporto, and had blocked up all the Defiles and Paſſes leading to Spain; ſo that the Spaniards muſt either ſtarve or retire. It is added, that the latter are already in great want of Proviſions, and that vaſt Numbers deſert daily to the Portugueſe Troops at Oporto.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, May 29.

" The Situation of Affairs in this Country is certainly none of the moſt pleaſant; but, on the other Hand, there is no Doubt that the Enemy will repreſent them in a worſe, and their own Succeſſes in a much better Light than they deſerve. That they have taken two or three open Places, which, tho' formerly fortified, were, when they approached them, in a defenceleſs Condition, is true. Yet even this is not true in the Light that they have repreſented it, ſince they publiſhed the taking of Miranda a Week before they came near it.

" But at Almeida, which is a Place of ſome Strength, having 6 regular Baſtions, and three Half Moons, beſides a well-built Fort, with four Baſtions, they have received a Check, and in their Attempt to take it by a Coup de Main, have loſt, it is ſaid, 600 Men; nor have they been more fortunate at Valenca. Part of our Forces have taken Poſt upon the Mountains: A Detachment has been ſent to cover Oporto, which will be ſupported To-morrow by a conſiderable Corps of Troops.

" The Spaniſh Army is even in a worſe Condition than it was at firſt repreſented, being, in a great Meaſure, without Tents, and without any Train capable of being employed in a regular Siege. Beſides, the Oeconomy of the Italian Miniſter is ſuch, that moſt of the Douceurs allowed to Officers and Soldiers are taken from them, which hath given no ſmall Diſcontent; and as the rainy Seaſon and Heats are coming on, we make no Queſtion that we ſhall be able to give a good Account of them as ſoon as our Army is compleatly formed, which will conſiſt of 50,000 Men, much better ſupplied in all Reſpects than thoſe againſt whom they are to act, and who have the utmoſt Confidence in the Goodneſs of their Cauſe, and in the Courage and Steadineſs of their Allies."

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, June 28.

" Paſſed by the Fleet under the Command of Sir Edward Hawke, who was joined from hence by the Prince of Orange and Tartar Men of War."

Two Ships, of 74 Guns each, one of which called the Canada, are now building at Woolwich. A Ship of War, called the Queen, of 90 Guns, is likewiſe to be put upon the Stocks.

Letters from Oporto, of the 11th of June, adviſe, that the Day before a Party of Portugueſe Troops, on their March towards the Defiles and Paſſes, fell in with a Party of Spaniards, whom the Portugueſe attacked, killed above 100, and took near 200 Priſoners, the Remainder retreated in very great Confuſion, leaving their Baggage, &c. behind them.

Some Days ago Mr. Swanton, a Stocking-maker, near Nottingham, brought home a Loin of Veal, which he ordered his Wife to get ready by 12 o'Clock, but did not come home till 4. and the Woman being accidentally taken Ill, eat none of the Veal, but put it by. The Huſband brought in ſome Beef-Stakes for his Dinner, which his Wife fried in ſome of the Veal-Dripping; and after eating them, he was ſuddenly taken extremely Ill; on Enquiry, he was informed in what Manner they were dreſſed, and how his Wife eſcaped eating any of the Veal; on which he replied, I am a dead Man; and deſired ſome of his Neighbours to be called in, to whom he owned, that he rubb'd a large Quantity of Arſenick into the Veal, with a Deſign of poiſoning his Wife, and expired in a few Hours afterwards. The Veal was burnt, but firſt examined by a Surgeon, who declared it would have poiſoned 100 Perſons, had ſo many eat of it.

BOSTON, September 2.

Juſt come to Town a Gentleman from Newbury, who came in a Flag of Truce from M. Tournay, Commander of the French Forces by Sea and Land at St. John's: She had 19 Days Paſſage, has on board 62 Men, Women and Children, 28 whereof Heads of Families, all Inhabitants of St. John's, and bound to this Port. We are informed, That the French Ships had all their Sails bent, were wooded and watered, and being weakly manned, they had ſtrengthened themſelves, by enliſting between 4 and 500 of the Iriſh, who were conſtantly exerciſing the Cannon and Small-Arms on board: The Ships it was judged would ſail within a Fortnight: A Garriſon to be left there of 4 or 500 French Regulars, under the Command of an Officer who has been with the French in America all the War.

M. Tournay ſays the Inhabitants ſigned a Paper, wherein they engage not to take up Arms againſt the French, during the War; but this is thought to be a Fallacy.

The Tranſports which ſailed from New-York the 16th of laſt Month, were all ſafe arrived at Halifax, and the Troops preparing to embark on board about a Week ago.

Monday laſt the Ship——, Captain Johnſon, a Tranſport Ship, arrived here in 13 Days from Louiſburg: He brings an Account that Lord Colvill with his Ships paſſed by that Iſland before he ſailed.

A Fiſhing Schooner arrived at Salem the Beginning of this Week, informs, that they ſaw Lord Colvill off St. Peter's.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, Auguſt 28.

" A Number of Tranſports arrived here Yeſterday, from New-York, which have on board 200 Troops: They are to carry 500 Regulars of our Garriſon, and 500 Provincials, together with the Garriſon of Louiſburg, being about 500 more, in all about 1700, in order to retake St. John's: The Expedition to be commanded by Col. AMHERST, and depart from hence in two Days.——Lord Colvill is at Newfoundland with four Men of War, of 70, 50, 40, and 20 Guns, with the Maſſachuſetts Province Ship, Captain Hallowell.——In all Probability they will be joined ſoon by ſome Ships from Home."

A Letter from Newport, Rhode-Iſland, Sept. 3.

" Laſt Night Capt. Wright in a Schooner, as Expreſs from Halifax to General AMHERST, put in here to land their Pilot. She left Halifax laſt Saturday, and the Maſter informs, That Lord Colvill was joined by five Sail of Engliſh Men of War of the Line from England; and that he had ſent an Expreſs to Colonel AMHERST at Halifax, to haſten his Troops, which were accordingly embarking, in order to ſail on Sunday Morning.——We hope ſoon to have the Pleaſure of hearing that the French Gentry are going Home Paſſengers to England in ſome of our Ships."

NEW-YORK, September 9.

Extract of a Letter from on board one of the Tranſports of the ſecond Diviſion, which ſailed from New-York for the Havannah.

" July 21, 1762, Latitude 22. 34. 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, fell in with a French Fleet, conſiſting of two Ships of the Line, two Frigates, one Polacre, and five other Ships. We ſaw them take 7 Sail of our Tranſports, and if there had been half an Hour more of Day Light we ſhould have ſhared the ſame Fate; but the Night ſaved us: We put about and ſtood off from them for about two Hours, and then altered our Courſe again. In the Morning we found ourſelves clear of them, and we ſaw them no more. The ſame Morning ſaw two Sail which came up with us, notwithſtanding our Endeavours to avoid them. They proved to be a Privateer belonging to New-London, and her Conſort, belonging to New-York. We then bore away for Cape Nichola, but finding no Ships there, we proceeded for the Havannah; in the Paſſage we met with the Enterprize Man of War, of 40 Guns, and a Tranſport, going to take in the Troops that had been caſt away upon the Iſland of Cuba. On the 29th we came in Sight of the 6 Ships which were caſt away, they were all bilged, but the Men all ſaved. The Ships were the Cheſterfield Man of War of 40 Guns, and 5 Tranſports, viz. the Smiling Nancy, the Induſtry, the Swallow, the Juno, and the Maſquerade."

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, dated July 11, 1762.

" Count de la Lippe Buckebourg, is juſt arrived as Commander in Chief of all the Forces here, great Things are Expected from his great Abilities; the Prince of Mecklenburgh is alſo arrived, with a great many other Officers, he is to command a Regiment of Portugueſe Horſe; Lord Loudon is every Hour expected here; General Crawford is up with the Portugueſe Army, inſtructing them, he is in great Eſteem here and at Court; Lord Tyrawley, it is ſaid, is going Home again. Capt. Sawyer, in the Active of 28 Guns, and Capt. Pownall, in the Favourite of 16 Guns, have taken a Spaniſh South Sea Man, with upwards of a Million of Money, ſome ſay a Million and a Half, without Doubt it is thought to be the richeſt ſingle Prize that ever was taken."

Extract of a Letter, received this Morning at Ten o'Clock, dated Hartford, Sept. 6, 1762.

" I give you Joy of the great Succeſs of Prince FERDINAND over the French Army on the 24th of June, as per London Gazette extraordinary, which Mr. Chew received laſt Friday Night, by a Veſſel juſt arrived from Scotland, at New-London, in a ſhort Paſſage, He ſays we killed and took 5000 of the Enemy, among which are a great Number of Officers, with all their Baggage and Cannon, &c."

PHILADELPHIA, September 16.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, July 6, 1762.

" Of late the Spaniards have made but little Progreſs on our Frontiers; Deſertion, and the Want of Proviſions, have been ſeverely felt among them; and ſome Advices ſay, that now Sickneſs prevails. The Count De la Lippe Buckebourg, a German General, of great Reputation, and the Prince of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, are arrived; Lord Londoun is alſo daily expected, and four Britiſh Regiments of Foot from Belleiſle.—Admiral Hawke, according to our laſt Advices, was coming out, but where deſigned, not certainly known. —The Active Frigate, Captain Sawyer, and the Favourite Sloop, Captain Pownall, have taken a Spaniſh Regiſter Frigate, called The Hermione, from the South Seas, and carried her to Gibraltar, ſaid to be worth from ſix to Seven Hundred Thouſand Pounds Sterling; ſome Letters ſay more. It is ſaid there is Intelligence of more ſuch Ships coming to Europe, and that our Men of War are on the Look-out.—Sweden has followed the Example of Ruſſia, in making Peace with Pruſſia; and, it is ſaid, Overtures are made from Saxony for the ſame Purpoſe; ſo that we hope the Empreſs Queen muſt ſoon find herſelf obliged to accede, that Peace may be reſtored to all Germany, as it may influence the reſt of the belligerant Powers to accommodate Matters the ſooner."

Another Letter from Liſbon, of July 3, mentions four Spaniſh Veſſels being carried in there by two ſmall Privateers; three of which ſaid ſo be loaded at Cadiz, for the Fleet at Ferrol.

By a Letter from the Havannah, come to Hand ſince our laſt, we learn, that beſides the twelve Spaniſh Ships of the Line found in the Harbour at the Surrender of the Place, there were likewiſe nine Frigates, and about 30 Sail of Merchantmen there: That our Men of War had taken four Frigates, one of which of 24, and another of 18 Guns, ſaid to be exceeding rich Veſſels: And that we had loſt a great many Soldiers and Sailors, who went a plundering the Villages, but generally fell in with the Enemy's Light Horſe, who murdered them in the cruelleſt Manner, by cutting out their Tongues, and mangling them in a moſt horrid Manner, ſuch as a Regard to Decency forbids to mention.
